

Bulletin No.59

PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS OF
IN-COMPANY HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT
IN A NEW ERA

- towards the new concept of "learning company" -

November 1984

Research and Development Institute of Vocational Training,
Employment Promotion Projects Corporation
In-Plant Education Research Society

PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS OF
IN-COMPANY HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT
IN A NEW ERA

- towards the new concept of "learning company" -

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE of VOCATIONAL TRAINING
Employment Promotion Projects Corporation

1960. Aihara
Sagamihara, Kanagawa
Japan

Tel. (0427) 61-9911

Contents

Preface - - - - - i

CHAPTER I

CHANGES IN THE ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS AFFECTING THE HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM - - - - - 1

- (1) How occupational capacities will be affected by microelectronics (ME) and other aspects of the technological progress
- (2) The existence basis of small and medium sized enterprises changes
- (3) Changes in career patterns due to the ageing of workforce and how to ensure the work morale of old workers
- (4) Changes and expansion in the area of HRD in the service economy
- (5) Changes in women's employment patterns
- (6) Instruction methods of technology transfer are inadequate

CHAPTER II

THE CHARACTERISTICS OF JAPANESE HUMAN RESOURCES
DEVELOPMENT - - - - - 8

- (1) Motivational factors promoting self-development
- (2) A view of labour as a mean to achieve human growth through work and a flexible role distribution based upon individual abilities
- (3) Fair long-range evaluation standards of occupational capacities
- (4) Planning and systematic training of key persons in charge of OJT
- (5) Mutual cooperation among employees

CHAPTER III

HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT FROM NOW ON: PROBLEMS
AND MEASURES - - - - - 12

[1] HRD paradigm change - - - - - 12

[2] The shift to the new concept of a "learning company" - - - - - 13

(1) Clarifying the necessary points for HRD

(2) Establish career routes suitable for the new age

(3) Establishing a consensus through the planning of HRD

[3] The support for the "learning company" - - - - - 16

(1) Offer of a wide range of know-how

(2) The establishment of "Experience Exchange Plazas"

(3) Total aid and assistance for enterprises

(4) Assistance in setting up guidelines

(5) Assistance given by the public vocational training centers

(6) Promotion of self-development

NOTES - - - - - 21

APPENDIX I

SUMMARY - - - - - 22

APPENDIX II

TABLES AND FIGURES - - - - - 26